“ My dad had to work to raise a total of 12 kids, that made him a wonderful man, I miss him each and everyday that goes by. We would always joke around when I called him on the phone and whenever I went by to visit. I miss him truly. My brothers and sisters miss dad also so much. The pain that we feel is unbearable now that we lost both parents. I will keep praying and asking God for strength. It'll come with time. Love you dad, see you soon. Give mom a hug for us and also Ruben Jr. our brother.

“ It's so hard letting go of our loved ones and it seems like an eternity until we meet again in heaven. I hope I get the chance to meet the Torres family again who have passed on. It was such a pleasure knowing the Torres family growing up. Their home was a happy home and I loved my visits. R.I.P. Mr Torres until we meet again.

“ I was lucky enough to meet "Papi" when he came into the office to establish his living Will. Even in that one instance the great love that he and Benita shared was something he could not hide. He was so proud to speak about her and how they were true soulmates. I was engaged at the time and asked him what his secret was. He jokingly told me to remind my future husband that "you are always right" and also said "when you each get mad, just walk away and come back later." He was clearly an expert in the subject as he went on to tell me that he had been married to Benita for over 60 years. I wish and pray to have a great love and marriage such as they had. May they both rest in peace and in your memories forever.
