“ Im am truly saddened to hear of your loss. Uncle Busch as our family called him will truly be missed. My borther, sister and I had the chance of meeting Rusty about 10 years ago. He became part of the family. He and my father Anthony Green became the best of friends. I will never forget Rusty had just had surgery when my father passed in December of 2007. Rusty made the doctors release him from the hospital so he could attend the funeral. Such an humble soul was he. It never failed from the time my father passed on up until now, every time I saw him, he would make sure he had a link of sausage for me. He will truly be missed. Our deepest condolences goes to the family...

Love Always, The Green Family...

“ Beverly/Daniel,

We were so sorry to hear about Rusty. I am always late getting the paper, which is why this is a bit late. I talked with Wanda several months ago, and she mentioned what a help Rusty was to Daniel by driving him to East Texas when Daniel needed to go. We trust that time will help heal the loss.

“ Beverly and family, please accept our heartfelt sorrow for you. The loss of a child, regardless of the age, is heartbreaking. Thank God for his grace, which assures us that we will reunite with our loved one and spend eternity with them in the house prepared for us by God. Take comfort in God's promise that there is no pain or sorrow there.
