She is preceded in death by her parents, Theodore Roosevelt Gould and Henrietta Walterina Gould. Sally grew up in Galveston, Texas, and moved to Richmond in 1966.

She is survived by her children, Todd Richey and his wife, Lisa, their children, Katie, Carly, Heather, Taylor and Candice, her daughter, Lisa Brockett and her children, Lindsey and Jessica, her daughter, Tara Hall and her children, Matthew, Mason, Mitchell and Summer, her son, Lance Richey and his children, Hannah, Amber and Lauren, her son, Kyle Richey and his wife, Jami and their children, Reese, David and Dustin and her step sons, Thomas Richey, his wife, Jodi and their children, Shawn, Brittney and Wyatt and grandson, Jacob and Randy Richey and his daughter, Elizabeth; her brother, Jay Gould and wife, Carol and his daughter, Angela Cummins and his son, Michael Gould.

Sally was many things to many people. In her younger days, she was homecoming queen, Prom Queen, Galveston Mardi Gras Queen, a Polio

Survivor and head Cheer leader. To all of us that knew her and loved her, she was Mom, Nana, friend, confidant and the most inspirational woman we will ever know. She always had her heart, her arms and her home open. She taught all who knew her many things, but in this past year as she as fought so valiantly against cancer, she taught us to never give in, never give up and attack every circumstance with every ounce of fight that we have in us. We love you and we will miss your tender words, generous advice and your "tell-it-like-it-is attitude". We will miss you every moment and love you without end.

The family will receive friends from 5:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m., Thursday, February 11, 2010 in the Chapel of Davis-Greenlawn Funeral Home in Rosenberg.

“ Sally was three years older than I. That's important because she was really my contemporary when she first taught at Ball High where I was a student. My mind's picture of her always begins with seeing her tan, in her white shorts and blouse, smiling her great smile as she walked the halls. Everyone thought she was beautiful, especially me. So I'm very pleased that the photo used to accompany her obituary was an exact one of the Sally I remember. May the peace of the Lord be with her family, as it now is with Sally.

“ I am so sorry about Sally's passing but it is a comfort to know that she is suffering no more and in the presence of the Lord, happy and at peace. She will be missed.
I always had a deep respect for her. She was never hesitant to pass her wisdom to others and offer needed advice. She always made us feel welcome in her home, as I remember many wonderful Thanksgiving and Christmas Days there. I loved her. God bless all of her family.
