“ Hi Pappy,
I'm working on your video right now for the funeral. You will be proud. It's taking me all day and it's brought back a lot of wonderful memories. Everyone is pitching in and I am getting pictures from all over the place. I'm putting music in that you and mom used to dance to back in the day. I also wrote your eulogy. I hope it got it right. It's mostly stories that I remember from sitting with you and talking about the old days. I'm going to miss you but I really KNOW you are in a better place. Say hello to mom and I hope she forgives us for holding on to you so long. We needed you here just a little longer. Peace and Love Dad.
