I will never forget Sandra as a young HS young lady! She was always helping George Jr and myself as we were growing up together at Wharton High School. Even back then she was the sweetest person, always helpful! My sympathies go out to her beautiful family! George J.

Where to start, I met Sandra in school, very quiet girl but very smart. We became friends, I remember she sat behind me in class. Anyway, then the unforgettable Quinceanera, I say that because of the beautiful red velvet dresses we wore. We had meetings for this event. Mama Nunez wanted everything perfect and it really did turn out to be a real fun time. After high school life began and we all split up, until a few years ago. I ran into Candida AKA Connie, and we talked about getting together for dinner at a restaurant. We got a group of five school friends and met at a restaurant. We would all talk about our family, vent, cry and mainly laugh at each other. It was always fun, Candida was just talking about another get together soon. Well, then we found out she was sick and our hearts were broken. We knew we would never have Sandra by our side again, laughing and reminiscing. I will forever miss you my friend Sandra, I love you and know that you are in good hands now. My deepest sympathy to Jimmie and you two boys, your Mama was so proud of you.
