“ Mom, It has been 1 year to today that we lost you and not one day has passed that I haven't thought about you. I miss you, I will forever cherish every memory I have of you. I miss hearing your voice, I miss talking to you. I wish we could turn back time and have you back in our lives. I know one day we will meet again, but until that time you will be truly missed. I love you.

“ Mom, There isn't a day that passes that I don't think about you. I miss you everyday. I wish we all had more time to spend with you. I don't even know if I had ever told you thank you for everything you have done for me and for us growing up and even as grown ups. Nor how proud I am to be your son. You were always there for us and always had our back even if we were wrong. No matter what it was we needed help with you were there without question or hesitation. You understood each one of us kids individually as the individuals were are. I still remember the day you told me that things were not going to be the same and all I could say you think so. I never imagined that you were meaning that you would be leaving us soon. I wish I would not have been so naïve as to what you were saying and I don't know how to tell you how sorry I am for not really listening at the moment to what you were really trying to say. And it still crosses my mind that last day that I saw you and helping you to your chair and you were saying no no no what you were really saying no to because I know i wasn't hurting you it was God sending one of his angels to take you home, he was very selfish in taking the most important person in my life away so soon, and I know I am saying this because of my selfishness. But I can't help but feel this way. I love you.

Merry Christmas in Heaven Mom. I wish you could be here with us. You are in our hearts and in our prayers for now and forever. We have wonderful loving memories of you at Christmas and all through the years of growing up. You always made everything special I you own way. I love you so much and miss you so much more. We shall meet again one day and I will be so happy to see you again. Love your son Larry “Mom, It's Thanksgiving it wasn't the same without you being here. We all got together and celebrated this day. My biggest reason for giving thanks is for you for being my Mother. Even though you were not here physically with us we know you were with us in spirit and in our hearts. You raised all four of us and loved us all unconditionally. You raised us to be caring, great full, to be respectful and to love one another, and you did a great job being a wonderful MOM. Connie and Tina got together and made your dressing. Connie also did the Turkey and ham made your pies and even made the time to make her rolls. Then dressing was very close to yours but not exactly but you would have been proud of them anyway. I know I was very expressed. You will be proud of Connie taking on the responsibility of taking care of Dad and making sure he is ok. I know it is tough on her as it was on you. I love you and miss you everyday. I know it is selfish of me for wanting you here but can't help it I miss you. Until we meet again. Love always Your son Larry.

“ Mom, It has been 4 month today since you left us. If I would have know that June 5th was going to be the last time I saw you, I would not have left your side and would have been there the whole time with you. I know I was able to tell you that Morning of the 6th that I love you before you left but it isn't the same. I wish I could have been there for you at your time of need. I miss you so terribly. I love you.

Your Son,
Larry

“ Grandma, you will be truly missed. There are so many great moments and memories that we shared that I will remember....the day I graduated high school, and the day I married my true love, when you first met my girls.....I will forever cherish those memories. But I will miss most of all the early morning chats at the kitchen table.....the ones where we solved the world's problems with each sip of coffee.
I will miss your laugh and quick witted humor....especially when my mom has the “Attack purse” and no one can understand us because we are laughing too hard. Those are the memories that will live in my heart that no picture could capture. Until we meet again, all my love.....😘

“ Sandy became step-grandmother to my brother, Adam and myself 28 years ago when our mom married Brian. However, she always treated us the same as her biological grandchildren. I remember her babysitting my brother on many occasions. She always made sure that we had a gift when we came to her house for Christmas. She always included and invited us to family gatherings. She did the same for our children when they came along. I remember her making my beautiful wedding cake when I got married 23 years ago. I know she must have spent so much time making it.

She was a fabulous cook. I got a few recipes from her when I was 1st married. She was also very talented at baking and crafts. Her family was truly the center of her world. She will truly be missed.

“ Mom, You are the Greatest Mother I could have ever wanted. You were always there when we needed you. Life isn't going to be same without you. My heart was broken when the Lord come to take you home. I love you and will miss you, I will always have memories of you and you will always be in my heart. You have always done your best at making everyone feel special and wanted and welcome. You are the heart of the family and you always kept the family together. All the Christmas gatherings you always made sure every child had a gift, and every one had plenty to eat including your sugar cookies that you took some much time decorating. All the Easter gatherings Easter egg hunts, I will always remember the sugar eggs you made and decorated with icing and little chicks and bunnies on the inside for us when we were children. You were so creative and talented. You loved us unconditionally and we loved you unconditionally as well. I love you and miss you so much it hurts. In time our pain will subside but you memory will live on forever.

*Sandy,
We were so blessed to have you as our neighbor over the past 15 years! We always looked forward to all the homemade Christmas cookies you would hand deliver over the years. We always looked out for each other and tackled any neighborhood issues head on. We will cherish the memories we made.

Sandy was a special person. She and Jim opened their arms wide for us when Christina married BJ (Barry). We have been blessed to be a part of the family and have many memories we will cherish for always. Heaven certainly received an Angel and we will miss her terribly.
