“ When I started working at the church, Sandy was one of the first people to come in and introduce herself to me. From that point on, she became a wonderful friend. She showed such kindness and strength through all her troubles. She was a true daughter of Christ. I know she has lots of questions to ask Him. I will miss her greatly.

“ Sandy was my mentor, my friend, a part of my church family. We met in Bible studies and she inspired me so very much. Her knowledge of the Bible and her faith in the Lord showed in her every day living. She was a true Christian who gave and gave of herself. When her breathing became labored and the coughing spells became more evident she had to stop leading Bible studies for awhile. The last one I did with her she told me the Lord put it on her heart to lead it and if by doing so He would get her through it and she did not have any episodes that time. I gave up wearing perfume years ago because it was hard on her to smell flowers or fragrances. Today in her honor I wore perfume and the chair next to me in Sunday School remained empty. Rest in peace, Sandy. She was loved, Harold and Natalie.

“ We visited Sandy in the hospital Monday evening. She was bright eyed and knew that all was in God's hands. Her faith was strong and her love for her family and friends was evident. She will be missed each Sunday but will remain in our hearts as a pillar and a woman of God. Much love to her family.
