“ I was so sad and shocked to hear about Scott's death. I taught art at Terry and remember how bright and funny Scott was, what a joyful spirit he had, and what a great talent he possessed. He was a unique and special person. My heart goes out to you.

“ Denise and Bob,
The whole Morris family is heartsick over the sudden loss of your precious son. I never had the pleasure of knowing Scott, but I knew the Aldridges well as our families grew up together on Linda Drive. My sister Pam speaks so lovingly of the Orsak boys. Our deepest condolences, and please know our prayers are with you.
Sincerely,
Linda Morris Cole

“ My God, I can't beleive it! I wasn't a close personal friend of Scott's, but I knew him and remembered him from our confirmation classes @ Sacrd Heart more so as one of the boys cutting up : . My mom called me to ask if I knew him since he was my age & from our church. I just can't imagine your emotions and heavy hearts, but God will lift them up; be certain of that. I hate to even send out my condolences but lack better words to ease the pain of this blow. May God bless this family! In my prayers & my thoughts!
Always,

“ Dear Denise & family--
You're in my thoughts and prayers. My most heartfelt sympathy, Denise. I never had the pleasure of meeting Scott but as a mother, I can imagine the difficulties ahead. I'm sure you find much comfort with your family and friends around you now. The photo of Scott needed no identification as he has those wonderful Aldridge eyes.
God Bless.
