“ Just a quick note to share that Mrs. Eversole sewed all of my Needville Blue Jay cheerleading uniforms and each stich was just perfect. She was a sweet, sweet lady that I will always remember. God Bless you all.

“ Reflections are many when it comes to the passing of Aunt Selma. She was actually my Great Aunt but, I never really cared. Some of my best memories in childhood were those of visiting my Great Aunts and Uncles. The life that they led and the manner that they approached life left a profound impact on me. I'm painfully aware that Aunt Selma is last of the Duesterhoff children, hence the last of my Grandmother's brothers and sisters. So that all Aunt Selma's Children, Grandchildren, Great Grandchildren, and relatives may know, her generation shaped my life. I have huge respect for all those that I hold dear, and many wonderful memories of Aunt Selma and her relatives. I thank the Lord for all that they did for me. I look forward to the day when I see you all again. Smile new Angel! For the burdens of life no longer trouble you.

*Many Thanks,
Billy Joe*

“ You are the end of this family's greatest generation. You saw much, endured much, loved much, and created much during your time with us. I pray your walks in Heaven will be light and your talks many, with all your family and friends. I will miss you, dear Aunt.
