“ Dear Scott, Ina, Sean and Charis,
Your wife, daughter, and MOM was a special person and will be a part of my life forever. The hours and nights we spent every summer sitting by the fire on Bald Eagle Lake talking about life, our families, our children and everything else in the world i know a number of things about Sharon. First she loved all of you dearly and unconditionally, she was proud of both Sean and Charis and only wanted the best for both of you. I know nothing I can say will make you feel better at this time or help the the pain you are feeling. But I do know one thing God gives us the ability to remember the hurt but over time the pain will go away. Sharon is in a better place and will be watching over all of you. My prays and thoughts are with all of you.

“ To the Christy family,
We are all so saddened by the awful news of Sharon's passing. I remember all the sweet talks Sharon and I would have at volleyball tournaments. She was genuine, compassionate, and had an open heart. She was such a pleasure to talk to and I will miss her deeply. This is a sad day. Our hearts and prayers go out to the family. -

“ Scott, Sean, Charis and Ina,
Please accept our deepest sympathy and prayers for your family during this unimaginably difficult time. Like everyone who ever met Sharon, I adored her. I kind of wanted not to when we met, because she was also gorgeous and charming with that precious accent!! We met weeks after y'all moved to Greatwood, as Sean and Caleb were on the same pre-K soccer team there. (What a great group of families that was!). We were fast friends, and I so enjoyed our visits in our lawn chairs. Then, when Rob was suddenly diagnosed with cancer, you were such an encouragement. Our kids ended up at different schools from then on, but I was always delighted to catch up over the years at VBS, Upward basketball, New Territory flag football, etc, etc. The last we spoke was this summer when you were here in Dallas for a Mary Kay event. I so wish I had gotten to see you! My heart is broken that you were obviously in great pain, in spite of the loving, joyful, kind, gentle spirit you were to all around you--but, Girl! I rejoice knowing you are with our beloved savior and your daddy now, and finally know that peace. I look forward to catching up with you there one day...

“ Sharon was such a beautiful soul. We are so deeply saddened by this tragic news. My prayers go out to the Christy family during this difficult time.

My favorite memory of Sharon was the night that a few of us couples attended a fundraising event and Scott bid on a puppy. Sharon had no idea Scott was going to do this and was not happy that they had won the bid and just purchased this puppy. Her reaction was priceless. Fast forward a few months, Sharon ended up falling in love with this puppy. He became her companion and she would tell me how much she loved him. Sharon will be greatly missed. May she rest In peace and may all who loved her find comfort in knowing she is now in God's arms.

“ We always looked forward to seeing them in the summer, sharon would always go out of her way to stop and say hi and ask how we were doing. Last summer she stopped and parked in the middle of the road blocking all traffic in and out of the sub to give us a hug and say hello not a problem normally. This time though she locked her doors with the keys in the car ohh well she had us all laughing including the sheriff that broke into her car for her. You will be missed lovely woman one of a kind are hart goes out to you Scott and the kids

“ I have number of memories but one I will never forget. My husband was dropping the kids to school and they had a minor fender bender. She was happy to hear my husband's accent as he is from England and they laughed it off and he told her don't worry about the scratch on the bumper. She made a point to send me a message to thank him for his generosity and how it was so refreshing to hear an English accent. Plus her choice in shoes was great too. She spotted my red soled heels at a party:) Will miss you sweet lady! Hugs to the family and many prayers.

I remember meeting Sharon at one of our first meetings of the Longhorn Players this year. She was such an amazing personality and fit right in with the group. We spoke a lot about the department, our recent trip to Scotland, and the excitement of returning in 2019. And haggis....we talked a lot about haggis.

“ Dear Christy family, I have just seen the messages on Facebook and wanted to add to everyone's condolences. I knew Sharon when you were here in Woking attending Christchurch. We taught Sunday School together and I will forever remember her support, kindness and love to me. She was inspirational and instrumental in my Christian faith walk and not knowing that she is still in the world is a real sadness. My condolences are with Sean, Charis, Scott and Ina. Sharon will be missed so much, may you all know God's peace and comfort at this sad time, God bless Tina xx
