“ Shirley was a breath of fresh air each day I saw here at WAP. She always said that she was blessed to have all the friends she had at the WAP site. The WAP ERT and WAP employees have and will miss her always. God bless Shirley!

“ Shirley was quite a lady. She had a tremendous work ethic at WAP and was truly devoted to its employees. They in turn called her "mom". I learned quite a bit from our visits at her post on Sundays and appreciated her assistance when she offered it. Shirley didn't deserve to suffer from the perils of cancer and I wish her a good journey in her afterlife.

“ MeMe, You will always be one of the main sources of comfort and stability in my life. It saddened me to watch you these last few months in pain but i know you feel no pain now sitting in heaven with God. The bond we had and still have is inseverable. Your love will always warm my heart. I love you entirely MeMe,
Your Main Man

“ My deepest condolences to Ms. Shirley's family. It had been about 4 years since I had seen Ms. Shirley, I always looked forward to coming to WAP, where I would know I would see Ms. Shirley smiling face welcoming me back to WAP. She was deeply loved by everyone she met. I am glad that I did get to talk to her a few times in the past months.
