“ Mrs. Baker was always a bright ray of sunshine on a cloudy day. You always had insight into any subject. If someone was having a bad day, just a brief conversation with you would change their mood. You were the queen of style. Always coordinated from head to toe. We will miss your never give up attitude no matter what adversity you faced. We will all miss your sweet smile, and love of life. We will miss our dear friend. May God wrap his loving arms around you, and give your family peace.

“ Shirley fostered my love of England and flowers. I don't know anyone who could grow more beautiful roses. I will miss watching "chick flicks" with her and my mother and making trips to Enchanted Forest Nursery. I know you are free from pain and with the son you missed so much, but I cry for us. We - who love you so and will miss your smile, sense of style and great sense of humor.
