“ Dear Nobby Jason and Scott, We send our love at this sad time in your lives. Shirley was always a spakle on a cloudy day, even when she was not well. Nobby, you and Shirley were Angie's second set of parents, and Shirley always looked after her as well as your boys. We will always have fond memories of our day-to-day contact with the Johnsons at Calvary and at the shop. Our prayers are with you and we hope to see you again soon. Faithfully, Ann and Mike Decker

“ To The Johnson Family-
We are so sorry about Shirley - She was a wonderful lady - she was a fighter - and loved her family very very much. She was and is an inspiration. Shirley will always have a special place in our hearts.

“ To the family, friends, and neighbors.....

I'm sorry for your lose and send my sympathy and condolences. I think most people will agree when I say that when Shirley was made, they threw away the mold as she was one of a kind. There will never be anyone that can take her place. When she left this world that day she took with her a piece of your hearts. But in time, the pain of your loss will fade and that void will be filled with love and many memories that you will always cherish.

As a wife, mother, sister, grandmother, aunt, or friend, Shirley ranked right up there as one of the best. She had a heart of gold and made friends where ever she went. She was strong willed, smart, witty and could be tough as nails when she needed to be. Through her life she many hardships that many people would have crumbled, yet she somehow managed to over came those things. What I'll remember most is her contagious smile. She brought much joy to people that were around her. She was just one of those people that are beautiful though and through.

It would take many pages to list all the good things about Shirley. Those that knew her, already know all the good things about her and the person she was, her beliefs, and the way she lived her life. She was an inspiration to all of us. There is no doubt where she went when she left us that day. She long ago earned her wings and gown of white. She's now with her mother, father, sister, brother and all the other loved ones that passed on before her. The welcome party must have been a beautiful site.

Her candle here on earth may have been put out but now in heaven her candle burns bright. Close your eyes..... Do you see her?? I can and right away notice that beautiful smile and just look at the sparkle in her eyes. Briefly I forget she's not with us and want to say she looks like an angel. Then I remember, she is an angel now. I feel very blessed to have known her and she will always be remembered with love.

Love, hugs, and kisses.....
