

Shirley A. Sebesta

“ Shirley was my boss when she managed at Terry HS, this news was shocking and so heartfelt to the many that worked closely with her.

“It was such pleasure working with a leader who encouraged growth and learning.” she was a Brilliant woman that I looked up to- her beautiful spirit and passion for Child Nutrition was contagious. Shirley has always been an essential part of my carrier life with LCISD and for that I celebrate her Legacy! Thank you Shirley for the support you've provided me with during our time together at Terry HS. Your guidance, encouragement, and belief in my abilities to be the best that I can be for the students of Lamar will never be forgotten.

Rest Easy My Boss, My Friend.

Wishing her family especially her children and grandchildren peace, comfort, courage, and lots of love at this time of sorrow. My heart goes out to you all at this difficult time.
