“ My favorite memory was playing chalupa with her at Raquel's casita. She kept winning. We had so much fun that day listening to her jokes. She loved her family and her grandchildren. I know she was so proud of each of you. My heart and prayers go out to you and the family. I hope in time the comfort you have is how well you loved her and how much she loved you. Her memory lives on in your hearts and how you love one another. Praying you press into the promises of God and keep trusting that through Jesus work on the Cross you will see her again.

“ Although I never met her, I've met and am friends with her daughters & family. I wish to share my condolences to the family & friends time of grief. I've loved the stories shared by her daughters. Memories and stories are a precious part of our lives. Life is a temporary honor in which to treasure. Our God brings us to this earth, then one day, sends us back home to heaven. God bless to all.
