“ Stephen , my brother would go to our dads and my moms house always hungry eating everything in sight lol. When he would get new tattoos about our dad he would always tell my sister dont tell dad cuz hes gunna be soooo mad. Always had his dogs. Last time i seen him he was lookin dapper getting ready to go dancing. Always smiling!We are going to miss him dearly. We love you. Rest easy big brother!!

My Son, Stephen. Even though you didn't come out of my body. I loved you as MY SON. Nobody will take that away and all the memories we had. My God bless and take care of you in Heaven. I love you and miss you dearly. As for your daddy. You broke his heart like it will never heal, you toke a part of our heart with you. You will never be forgotten. My Handsome Angel.

Stephen, I will miss you greatly. Your love of people and animals touched my life so deeply. I could always count on you to be watching the pool so that I could have a great experience teaching the water aerobics class. Our members at the Y and at Del Webb are so blessed to have had the privilege of knowing you. I know that you will be watching over all of us as our Beautiful Angel.
