We, the Sykowski family, wish to express our sincerest sympathy to you, your children and all the Steve Pisarski family in your loss. Steve was such a good person, a devout Catholic and outstanding American. Our mom and dad, Roman and Lillian, were good friends of both of you and we understand how it is to lose someone so good to a family.

May you find comfort in knowing that others care. We will keep you all in our prayers. May God hold you in his tender care.
