

Steve Harris Carlson

July 31, 1957 - April 22, 2026

Steve Harris Carlson, 68, of Richmond, passed away on April 22, 2026, in Sugar Land. He was born on July 31, 1957, in Houston, Texas, to his parents, Robert and Patsy Carlson.

Steve was a man of determination and entrepreneurial spirit, having owned and operated his own business throughout his life. He had a deep love for the outdoors, particularly enjoying time spent fishing. He was also a generous and compassionate soul, lending his support to numerous charitable causes, including St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, Wounded Warriors, and many others.

Steve's greatest joy was found in his family. As a devoted husband, father, brother, and grandfather, he leaves behind a legacy of love that will be forever cherished by all who knew him.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Robert and Patsy Carlson, and his brother, Bryan Daniel Carlson.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 33 years, Kay Carlson; his children, Andrew Robert Carlson, Timothy Lee Ford, and Seth Allen Ford; his granddaughter, Emma Elizabeth Ford; his sister, Lila Jean Bastian and her husband Ed; his niece, Hailey Bastian; and great-nephew, Lucas Bastian.

There are no services to be scheduled at this time.

“ Steve was an inspiration to me growing up Nextdoor in Sharpstown. I remember the pet duck, the motorcycles, the vinyl albums as a kid. Then later as a friend after growing up and moving. Heavenly Father welcome Steve into your kingdom, Amen.
