“ Words cannot express how sorry we are for your loss, and please know that it is a loss for us all. Steven has always been a warm and welcoming person, treating Kelly as his own sister, and us as his own family. We knew Steven to be a good father, husband, son, grandson, brother, uncle, cousin, and friend to those who knew him. What more can we say about anyone than to say that which is so true about Steven... he was a good man with a kind and caring heart. We are all better for having known him, we will never forget him, and until we see him again, we know he will be praying for us. We love you...Your Family,The Dunn Family

The only thing that truly helps is knowing how close you are to the Lord and how he is wrapping his arms around you and giving you peace! I love yall so much and want you to know how painful this has been for us all!! He was a beautiful person and i know has joined the other angels in heaven! We are here for you and love you all so much! Peace, love and fellowship-those are the things to help us get through!! I love you, sweet cousin!!!

“ Even though we did not know each other very long, you made a huge impact in my life. We connected right away like we knew each other for years. You were so easy to talk to. I wished we had more time to get to know each other. I'm going to miss your positive vibes and our conversations. I am praying for all of your family during this time. Fly high my sweet friend!!!

“ To Steven's Family,

I was so devastated to hear the news of Steven's passing. Steven along with his family came to visit his brother Shaun in Florida and stayed with us. He has a contagious smile, brilliant humor, and an all around personality that makes you love him instantaneously. I consider myself lucky to have met him, and to spend those few days with him and his wonderful family. Steven is truly missed. Sending my love, and condolences from Florida.
