“ To all Suzie's Family,

You have my deepest sympathy in this huge loss. As you all know, Suzie and I were cousins and grew up together until we all reached adulthood and scattered throughout the country. While I was still in Kansas City, I had the pleasure of seeing Suzie often when she made her trips to see our Aunt Anna.

Again, you have my sincere condolences.

“ Kathy and Tom,

Your mom was very special to me. I met her and you when I first moved to Houston to work for Northrop. I don't know what I would have done without her help and guidance back then.

I thought of her just today when I went to building 31. What a sad moment it was for me to find out hours later that she had died.
