“ Very sad to see this news. I met Susibohac through Yahtzee. It was a great past time and she became a frequent player with me. It had been about a year and a half. And for the first time she did not respond. I found it odd. I let it go thinking maybe she just was not playing anymore, but something told me to search. Very saddened to see this obituary pop up. I just felt that I had to leave a message. She seemed very nice. She helped me get by my pregnancy insomnia, and blues by being my playing partner. And our brief chats showed me she was a sweet lady. My condolences to your family.

“ My deepest sympathies go out to the Bohac family. I've worked with Susi for many years and have enjoyed her friendship, throughout. Susi's work ethic and endeavor for excellence, will be missed. But more so, her smile, laugh and of course, the verbal jousting. Susi was a just fun to work with, daily. She leaves a company that thought dearly of her, and still do! Sweet dreams Susi.

“ My heart is aching thinking about how a new void has been created in so many lives that Susi touched on a daily basis. We worked together. Ironically when we first met neither one of us knew what to do with the others strong persona. We clashed for a very short time. Who could resist becoming friends with such a sweet, fun, loving, helpful person with such a positive outlook?! Not me. Every work day she was there was a better day! I'm so grateful to have had our friendship & better for it. May God bless her family she lived for & loved immensely with all her heart & her friends who are sharing the heartache. RIP Lady ...love you to the beach & back! ~Shine on~ Until we meet again one sweet day~ My deepest condolences to the entire family~

“ I will miss her smile and her giggles, her laughter was infectious and we laugh together for many and many a day. There were many adventures growing up with her on the banks of the Brazos River! And how I loved her mom and dad as they always took me camping with them and we always had a blast. In those days riding bikes, walking across the Brazos River bridge to Davis park, Larry's Mexican food, cheerleading together, and many secrets with her that will remain only mine and hers to keep! we both grew up went our separate ways, raised our families, we always could call upon each other anytime and pick up where we left off
It did not surprise me that she kept her worries to herself as she always had a heart of gold, and live life to the fullest always having the best time no matter what! I will cherish our childhood memories and hold them close to my heart forever.

“ Before Susi fell ill, she greeted me and said goodnight to me with a bright smile, each day at Newpark. She would share stories about her wonderful husband & grandkids. My comfort for the family and all the lives she touched is in knowing that another Angel got their wings. My prayers are with each of you. Rest easy Susi, God has your family in the palm of His hand, so you don't have to worry.
