“ Glenn and I are very sad to hear about Susie's passing. She was always kind and considerate, loving and generous to everyone and is loved by many. While we know the grief felt here on earth we can imagine the joy she is experiencing as she dances with the Angels. We will always remember her uninhibited expressions of utter joy when she danced before the Lord here on this earth. Please accept our deepest sympathies.

“ We are deeply sorry for your loss. Susie and I shared a special time in my life when we homeschooled together. She was passionate about her family and her Savior Jesus. Susie was bigger than life, encouraging me to go farther, dig deeper, and be stronger. My joy in Jesus felt grander when I was with her and I felt the mighty power of prayer when we bowed together. You may like to know our prayers were often for our husbands and children, their futures, their spouses and families to come. We petitioned for each of you by name before the throne of God.

Our family is asking God's blessing on you at this difficult time. We wish you sweet memories of the wonderful woman of God she was.
With love,
