“ My mom! The most beautiful, wonderful, godly, encouraging woman in the world. I would not be where I am in life without my wonderful mom and dad. They taught me how to work and take care of myself and my business. My mom is so loving and pure and I know she is sitting on the right hand of God at this very moment. I love you mom, mother and friend forever until we meet again. Love your baby Rocky

“ I regret not knowing your family. I know we are related. A loss such as this can only be carried by remembering the love of Jesus and God's plan for our souls as we wait to be reunited on the other side. As I read the few paragraphs about Susie, all the names of the family members and friends that I know she loved so much, I placed myself into your family even so distant and unknown to you all, I could feel the extreme love you all share together. Im a Parr, and Parris care about other Parris, near or far. Susie will be close in you thoughts and her name will often slip from your lips. Enjoy her in your memories and soon let your hurt from the loss be a song to your heart. Mathew Parr, son of Robert Parr, grandson of Willis Parr, great grandson of Lee Parr.
