“ Our deepest sympathy goes out to you Donald, Chris, and the rest of the family. We feel fortunate to have known Syl for the few years we bowled in the Twin City league. We especially remember his love of children in the way he enjoyed our grandchildren when they would visit at the bowling center. May God and his loving arms comfort all of you during your time of loss.

“ God Bless your family. There are so many things that I remember from my childhood about Syl. Then when I married and had a son, he was so good to my son who used to call Syl the "Quarter Man" because Syl would always give Cameron a quarter when he saw him. Rest in Peace Syl.
