“ To Terri's husband, children, and the wonderful Mraz family - I wasn't privileged to know Terri, but I know her family. Msgr. Golasinski calls them the Mraz Family Singers. They love and treasure their own children and everyone else's also. Heaven is a place of little children, and of singing. Terri is well now, and I will pray for all of you. I know it is so hard to loose such a beautiful, loving person. God bless you and give you comfort. Love, Georgia Early

“ It is with great sadness to hear that one of us has been called home.
We have been blessed to know her. Sometimes we ask the reason why?
No more pain, no more suffering and no more tears.
God has stretched out his hands and said....Welcome Home.

“ Please accept my sympathy in your loss of Theresa. I was a classmate of Theresa in highschool. The thing that I remember most about her is her twinkling eyes and ever present smile. And, as far as I can recall, she never had a bad word to say about anyone - she always was cheerful and kind. I have prayed that God would comfort your family and strengthen you in the days ahead as you all learn how to live here on earth without the presence of your wife, mother, daughter, and friend. I know that it will be a tremendous void and I pray that you will allow God to fill that void with His love and His presence.
