“ Uncle Adolph and family thank you for sharing the memories of my Aunt and the rest of the families. I sorely miss Aunt Teresa's smile and laughter when I spent a summer in Rosenberg when I was 17. I learned a lesson not to miss work at Kentucky Fried Chicken on 4 of July when Aunt and Uncle grounded me for calling in sick. But a lesson. She will always be in my heart as well as uncle Miko, Kenneth, Lilian, Debbie, Sandra. Love all and your families may God Bless you all. She is in a better place. From Johnny and Malaga and the rest of my family. Miss you all and God bless.

“ My grandma was the flame that burned bright in my lighthouse called LIFE. I remember her waking up boiling beans, making sure everyone and everything was set for the day to come. The day went on like her refried beans, teeth at the table to gross us out. I loved her sense of humor. I would sit right next to her just to lol. As the sun set and all her grandchild were feed and bathed her day still did not end. Not ONE NIGHT went by and that woman wasn't on her knees praying. Praying for us all. I always felt safe and secure around my grandma. She always just MADE EVERYTHING BETTER. Church was better cause she had a purse full of candy.
Food was better cause she made homemade tortillas. Laughs were harder cause she was the reason why we'd be laughing. Oh how I will miss your sweet soul. Our jokes. Me talking crap just cause in the end you couldn't catch me to whip me. I love you to the moon and back!
