“ Many prayers for your family. My husband Brian and I knew Tommy a long time ago but his friendship was genuine and made a difference in our lives. Friends long moved away still hold you all close in our hearts because of him. May peace that you can't imagine embrace you all and hold you up during this difficult time.

“ Tommy my dear friend you really caught me off guard with this one I must say. After just talking to you a little over a month & a half ago I would have never thought it was going to be the last time we would listen to each other over the phone. We shared a very nice conversation reliving our past as we spent plenty time going to many rock & roll concerts together & our time working at Sonic back in the day. The only thing I can remember where we didn't agree with each other was your love for the Cowboys. May you rest in peace & may the good Lord bless your soul.

“ Wow, you were always the sly one, holding the trump card but I would have lost the bet when Avery posted that you were gone. Shocked, I read it slowly to make sure I fully understood. Tommy you will always hold a special place in my heart. Heck, I would probably never would have passed History without your help 😊. You will always be remembered as one of the best guys I know, kind, respectful and you loved your children deeply. I remember our conversation about Wendy, who knew you guys would fall madly in love. That always made me happy for you. May you find eternal rest and peace. You were a great friend!!!

“ I don't know if you're able to read this Uncle Tommy, I can't speak as to the uncertainty of life after passing, but there are three things I am absolutely stone-cold certain of. You loved Metallica, the Dallas Cowboys, and above all, your family. I want you to know that I feel proud to have been a part of that family. Even when you were with us, you were always on mind. Now that youre gone? It hasn't changed one bit. I still hear you if Metallica popped up on my playlist. Ill never forget that you taught me how to headbang. You took me to my first and second rock concerts. Hooters on my 18th birthday. I also remember how hard it was for you to buy me that 49ers windbreaker all those years ago. I can hear you telling me not to have regret about how things played out. And maybe I'll always carry it. But Ill also always carry my love for you. I don't know where you are now, but I'll be there eventually. And ill let you know if Metallica dropped another album. I love you. Ill miss you. But I'll see you again.
