“ Hey bro I was thinking about you the last couple days i went to visit alot of lost loved ones at cemetery on friday ! I still miss your jokes and your awesome portraits we lost some more friends/neighbors recently. When I am saddened by all yalls passing I am comforted picturing u, Matt, both Chris's, Michael, cory, Brian and both Eric's Charlie, cutting up making dumb jokes in paradise. I have a few more friends and loved ones up there and I hope that yall meet bc yall would have even more fun with them and if you want more jewels on your crown go ask my grandma, or aunt or other kinfolks bc they will help you up I know they billionaires in heaven . Just go look for them somewhere close to the right hand of God bc that's where they will be ! Hope u remember the fun times like me ! Rest easy homie!

“ I still remember sitting in front of you in class and tiring around to see your drawings. Such a talent. All the memories we have and times we shared. I wished I would of done more to be a better friend to you. I've been thinking about you recently and I came to visit you today but I couldn't remember where they laid you. I miss you friend. I'll always remember you. Miss you Thomas ❤️

“ Dear Thomas,

Our heart was broken without a warning, no words spoken. You were taken away someone said, you could not stay. Empty and lonely is what we are, we lost a precious shining star our family torn apart. Your world began with a promising start. Life is unfair, this difficult cross we must bear. Strength and courage we will find. Thomas you are special and will always be in our mind, a place in heaven is where you sit looking at that star you lit, in our thoughts forever you will be.
