

Tony Calderon

April 19, 1947 - May 23, 2017

Tony Calderon, 70, of Rosenberg, TX, was called home on Tuesday, May 23, 2017. Tony was born April 19, 1947 in Waco, TX to Egesipo and Carolina Calderon. He moved from Waco and ended up in Stafford, TX where he met the love of his life, Lydia DeLuna. He and Lydia married on March 22, 1971. They moved to Rosenberg, TX to raise their two daughters, Deborah and Rose.

He provided for his family by operating his own A/C and Heating business, Morning Air. He retired and the family business continues to run under Fort Bend Air & Heat, operated by his son-in-law, Philip Villaloboz.

After retirement, Tony enjoyed life hanging out with his 3 grandchildren, Nico, Lillee, and Lee and tending to the family property in Boling, TX.

Tony is survived by his wife, Lydia DeLuna Calderon, daughters, Deborah Calderon and her partner Ashley, Rose Villaloboz and her husband Philip and their children, Nico, Lillee and Lee, siblings, Mary DeLeon, Oralía Moreno and Jesse Calderon, and many loving nieces, nephews and extended family.

Tony is preceded in death by his parents, Egesipo and Carolina Calderon, father and mother-in-law, Jesus and Francisca DeLuna and brother, Johnny Calderon.

A special thank you to the emergency room and ICU teams at Oak Bend Hospital on February 19, 2017, and to the CCU team at St. Luke's Hospital from February 20 to March 15, and to the ICU team at Kindred Hospital from March 15 to May 23. The loving care and kindness provided will forever be a part of our lives.

Visitation will begin at noon on Saturday, May 27, 2017 at Davis Greenlawn Chapel, 3900 B.F. Terry Blvd., Rosenberg, TX 77471, with service following at 2:00 p.m. Reverend Arnoldo Gomez of Templo Gethsemani in Rosenberg will open with prayer and Pastor Edward Zamora will officiate.
