

Tracy M. Eversole

December 10, 1973 - May 3, 2026

Tracy Michelle Eversole, a light in the lives of all who knew her, passed away on May 3, 2026, at the age of 52. Born in Kendleton, Texas, on December 10, 1973, Tracy was a woman of deep strength and even deeper love for her family.

For 34 years, Tracy was the devoted wife of Adam Eversole. Together they raised four daughters and built a home where everyone felt like family. Tracy was truly a "mother to everyone," welcoming friends and neighbors with a warm meal and something sweet from her oven.

A creative soul, Tracy loved spending her time on arts and crafts, especially making custom shirts for her grandchildren. She was a talented baker who made special cakes for everyone's birthdays, ensuring every milestone was celebrated with love. Whether she was cheering for the Dallas Cowboys, decorating for every holiday with her seasonal wreaths, or spending time with her community at First Baptist Church in Needville, she did everything with a heart full of joy.

She is survived by her husband, Adam; her daughters, Sarah Montalvo (husband Eddie), Crystal Eversole (fiancée Ana Gore), Heather Morales (husband Brandon), and Liliana Eversole; and her cherished grandchildren, Gianna Morales, George Montalvo, Victor Martinez, Angela Martinez, and Gabriel Smith.

She also leaves behind her siblings, Susie Gentry, Lupe Melvin (husband Teddy), Trinidad Van Slyke, Cathy Deleon (husband Rick), and Santos Reyes, as well as numerous nephews and nieces who she loved dearly.

Tracy now rests peacefully, reunited with her mother, Martha Reyes, and her siblings, Rosa Reyes and Johnny Reyes Jr.

Tracy's kindness, her creative spirit, and her devotion to those she loved will be forever cherished. She will be deeply missed and forever loved by all, especially her grandkids who affectionately called her "Nonna."
