

Travis Michael Janik

August 5, 1988 - August 5, 2010

Travis Michael Janik was born Aug. 5, 1988, in Houston, and passed away Thursday, Aug. 5, 2010 in New Braunfels.

Travis leaves behind to cherish his memory and celebrate his life, his parents Michael and Renee; brother, Tyler; sisters: Savannah and husband, Clayton Poarch, Kirsten and Mykala; grandparents: Aileen Janik, and Wade and Evelyn Walters; and aunts, uncles, and numerous friends and loved ones.

Travis' zest for life and adventurous spirit touched many lives. Travis' Facebook description of himself says it all: "Way laid back, likes to do crazy things, travels the world, loves meeting new people, very friendly, loves extreme sports, water, and music."

Travis was well known for his unmistakable bright red curly locks. He was often heard saying "walk it off" and "One day your life will flash before your eyes, make it worth the watch." He lived every day as if it were his last, a lesson we all need to learn.

Travis grew up in Guy, and graduated from Needville High School. Travis' occupation was a professional diver/underwater welder. Travis will be dearly missed but never forgotten by those who met him and loved him.

Memorial services will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday, Aug. 11, at Creekside

Christian Fellowship, 16628 Highway 36 in Needville.

The family has asked that donations be made to SMART DIVERS San Marcos Area Recovery Team, 1401 West San Antonio, San Marcos, Texas 78666, 512-754-7963, in lieu of flowers.

Any floral arrangements may be delivered straight to Creekside Christian Fellowship after 9:00 a.m. on Wednesday.
