“ Trichelle and I started working with my dad way back in 1985 or so and have been friends since. She was the hardest working, most organized person I knew. It is rare indeed to find those qualities within the tenderness and kind soul that was Trichelle as well. We love you and miss you.

“ *I remember hearing a beautiful voice up in the choir loft at Holy Rosary...I looked up to see who was blessed with this voice of an Angel....I met Trichelle thru my sister... and every time I saw her, I told her , here is that pretty lady with the beautiful voice...
She would just smile, and say Oh, thank you... When my mother passed away in 1998, she sang at her funeral...and she sang the songs that we had requested...some of my mother's favorites were On This Day Oh Beautiful Mother and Ave Maria....she sang so beautifully..I also had asked her to read a 5 page story , that I wanted to share with the congregation, but I knew that I could not do without breaking up...she did that as well...I was so thankful for all that she did for our family...Trichelle, was such a beautiful, caring and loving person...now she is with God and singing with His Angels...May God watch over her children and family...*

“ This was such a shock to hear. Trichelle was a very beautiful person. She took the time out of her life to sing at my mother in laws funeral. Just 5-months ago. Trichelle was such a beautiful & talented singer. She will be greatly missed. I always looked forward to hear her sing Sweet Little Jesus Boy. Now she will be able to sing to him. My heart goes out to all of you prayers & deepest condolences. Ricky & Nan Cernocho “ Trichelle was the youngest of the many first cousins I was blessed to have in my life. Her dad whom I knew as "Uncle Walton" married later in life, after which Trichelle and her older siblings joined the Tyler-based Roberts and Shelton cousin-tribe. Regrettably we did not get to enjoy Trichelle's and her siblings' company as often as we would have liked as they remained in the Richmond area. My wife Julia and I along with all of the cousins are saddened at losing her and pray God's comfort and blessings on her family.

PS

Trichelle was a beautiful lady both inside and out. Always having a smile and willing to help anyone. God blessed her with the beautiful voice of an angel and she is now singing with the choir of angels in heaven. May she rest in peace. My deepest sympathy to the family.
