“ I think I remember her when I was just a little boy. I also remember the Turkey farm and sugarland when it was just a small muddy town. God bless all of you and may you have a good Christmas I am Pauline's brother-in-law.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this difficult time. Always remember the precious moments you spent together. We pray that the Lord give you and your family the strength and guidance to overcome your sadness. On a personal note: I'll never forget when she had her $1 bill ready to pay for a stripper at Amanda's bridal shower!! PS: there was no stripper.....

“ Diane, I am so sorry for your loss. I am Janie's friend from Church. We have met many times. I know how close you were with your Mother and have been taking care of her for some time. I pray for you and your Brother. God Bless to you all.

Sincerely,

Anne Dillon
