Eric was one of the finest people I have ever known. I was lucky enough to spend New Year's Eve in Chicago with him for the new millennium. I am honored to be able to call him my friend. Eric's friends and family were always so important to him. My condolences go out to all the many friends and family that Eric loved and held air to his heart.

“ Eric was truly one of a kind! I was luckily enough to spend time with him as a colleague on the landscape architecture boards of ASLA Texas and Texas A&M over the past decade.

I'll never forget his positive approach to life, his impeccable style and bowties, and his incredibly infectious laugh. Eric was an Aggie thru and thru and true bred maroon. He will always stand with the 12th man in spirit.

His passing is a massive loss to the landscape architectural community in Texas and beyond, but I know his memory and spirit of promoting design and mentorship will carry on forever. Softly call the muster. Here.
