“ My heartfelt condolences to the family of Vera Becan. Growing up as cousins and also neighbors, she was a gift to us all. My mom, Georgia, adored her. She was an exceptional, unique individual who had the gift of compassion and love. Loved by so many and will be greatly missed. Yall were blessed to have her in your lives. God be with you all during this time of grief.

“ I first met Vera when I went to visit my Marine Corps brother and best friend Al back in the summer of '89 while on leave. She welcomed me with open arms. Years later, my family and I celebrated Thanksgiving with Al and his family/siblings and Vera made us feel like we were at home. I was still in the Corps, stationed in Texas and couldn't make it to my or the wife's family for this occasion. Being there was a blessing for us all. She was and still is an angel. She will be missed.
