“ To know Vickie was to love her. She touched so many lives with her special gifts of compassion and friendship, and all who knew her were better for it. Since Sarah's call, I have thought about the time we shared and those memories will be with me until I see my friend again. May God bless and comfort your family.

“ Steve, Our thoughts and prayers are with you and the family for the sadness of Vickie's leaving this earth. May you find peace in the knowledge that she is with our precious Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. When I think of Vickie I fill joy in my heart for the memories of her laughter, her Love for you and her family and the compassion, love, and caring she had for all of her friends. How blessed I am to have had the privilege of knowing her.

“ When Sarah Left me a message today, I was walking through Northtown to a meeting. I walked by Dagg Park and remembered when we were playing at the park and the "mean" girl was going to beat up Linda. Being the brave person I was and still am -- I ran back to Clay street leaving the three Magruder girls to fend for themselves. Part of my family passed away with Vic. She was an amazing person in ways that those close to her know. She was my teacher in how to live, accept and forgive. She taught me how to go after my dreams which is why I work in a high school today. As you go through this difficult time - my prayers are for all those in her family and especially Sarah, David, Linda, Mary Lee and Ron. I lost a bit of myself today but gained so much from being part of Vic's life.
