“ Sweet Vic. Oh how he will be missed! My uncle was a true gentleman...kind, caring, honest and humble, and so very handsome with his twinkling blue eyes. He could garden, repair cars, run a business, hunt and joke around...and was always impeccably dressed. It was a pleasure to visit with him at a party or family reunion. My aunt and he were quite a pair! It was always "Vic & Bessie"...never one without the other. In his final years, my aunt took such good care of him. He may not have been able to express it, but he knew she was there. Prayers and sincere condolences to the entire family.

Our thoughts and prayers are with the family. I can remember Victor and Bessie always coming to the Borowicz Reunion. In the earlier years we had the Julius Balcerowicz's band playing music; and on the dance floor was Bessie and Victor dancing. Victor will be missed. But the memories will last forever. May he rest in peace.
