“ So sorry for your loss, Victor and I grew up in Mathis attending the public schools during our youth. We were roommates during our years at Del Mar College in Corpus Christi and even worked together during the college summers at a grain elevator to earn some extra college money. I spend many days at his house enjoying his mother’s food especially her homemade tamales during tamales season made many memories riding around in our cars. My love, hugs and prayers to all his wonderful family and his wife. Many blessings.
