

Virginia (Ginger) Vlasek Cimino

March 3, 1941 - March 7, 2026

Virginia (Ginger) Vlasek Cimino was born on March 3, 1941, to Louise and John Vlasek. She was the third child out of 7 children. In August of 1960, she married Douglas Henneke. They had 2 daughters, Laura Ann and Kimberly Jo. They unfortunately divorced after 19 years of marriage. In June of 1988, Ginger married Ron Cimino. They were married until his passing in 2021.

Ginger was an avid reader and would often trade books with Kim, who is also a reader. She loved to cook and bake. Her favorite was to make her own recipes. The kitchen was her happy place. She liked antiques and antiques. For a short time, she worked at an antique shop on the weekends in exchange for antiques. Ginger always loved a good bargain and would often tell you what a good deal she found.

She loved the Texas Hill Country. She would hunt and always lend a hand in making sausage. Virginia was a hard worker, a giver with a big heart.

She is preceded in death by her parents, John and Louise Vlasek, sister, Dorothy Adlis, brothers, William Vlasek, David Vlasek and Michael Vlasek, first husband, Doug Henneke and second husband, Ron Cimino.

Ginger is survived by daughters, Laura Rice and her husband, Joe, and Kim Henneke; grandson, Clifford Rice, granddaughter, Heather Rice; great grandson, Clifford Rice, Jr. (CJ), sisters, Mimi Walker and Wanda Kilburn; along with numerous nieces, nephews, extended family and friends.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to Lucky Penny Rox Rescue - <http://www.luckypennyroxrescue.org/> . Ginger loved animals and would feed the stray cats in the neighborhood and even had two of her own.

The family will gather to celebrate Ginger's life on her property in the Texas Hill Country, a place she always loved to be.

“ Clifford or as Mr. Edd (SHSU, Gibb's Ranch) called you (Cliffy)! I am so sorry for your loss. I will hold you and your family in my prayer during this difficult time. Reading her obituary, I see where you get Big Heart and being a Giver. What a sweet Granny you had Clifford. Hugs and Prayer for all.
