“ GiGi was an extraordinary person. I don't think there was ever a time when I didn't see her smile. Out of everyone in my life I could definitely say she taught me the most. No matter who wronged her she never had a bad thing to say. The most kindhearted person I knew. GiGi i will miss you and I am truly honored to have known you as a person, friend, and grandmother. I love you. ”

“ Becky, Brandee, Brett and Ally,

You all have received the best love that a loving person as GiGi could give. GiGi loved you unconditionally 1 corinthians13:7-8.

GiGi shared her time with my children along with Ally and Brett for 13 years at Birthday parties, school programs, football and baseball games.

During my last visit with GiGi, I promised her that I would make sure that Ally and Amanda always keep their friendship and love one another no matter what.

May we all be love as GiGi.

*We share in your love loss,

“ My beautiful mother: You blessed us with your wonderful smile, grace, and dignity. You were the consummate lady. You loved me unconditionally, even when i was selfish and stupid. I can only hope i made you proud of the man i have become. I will think of you everyday. I will do my best to live the rest of my life on the earth to make you proud. I know heaven has just recieved the most beautiful angel to have ever walked the earth. I await the day that i am reunited with you and we walk hand in hand together with Jesus. I love you Mom!

“ *Ginny,
It's been a long time since we met in 1963 while I was dating Margie. We have shared a lot of laughs and shed some tears along the way. The last time I saw you we had a great time talking laughing the night away. Margie was so glad to be able to spend some time with you. Noe you are free of that dreaded pain of cancer and the everyday worries of life. With your star shinning brightly you are one of God's angels. May you rest in peace. Ginny you will be missed.*

“ Rebecca, I am praying for you and your family during this very sad time. You gave her the greatest gift- to move into eternity with lots of love around her! 2 Cor.1:4 reminds us that HE comforts us so that when the time comes you will be able to comfort others. His word promises that He will always be with you, He catches each tear that you shed Ps.56:8so you can know- He has not taken his eyes off of you. Thinking of you-

“ Dear Travis and Rebekah and families,
I am so sorry for your loss. I remember your Mom so fondly and loved to hear her laugh and enjoy life. Be sure of this, she continues to live in those of us she influenced. As a child, I was drawn to her physical beauty, and sweet spirit---it was her love of you all that was also so beautiful. Please know that I am lifting you all up in prayer now and in the days to come.

With love,

“ I will never forget you Aunt Ginny, you were like a Grandma to me. I still remember when you took me to Disney World and we bought the towel that expands when it touches water. When we put it in water it only turned out to be the size of a washcloth. You and I joked about what a "big towel" it was. In great memories, Love Andre.
