The video typifies who Wayne was. My condolences to his partner and his family. I knew Wayne from working with him at Lowe's in 2017. He was always helpful to customers and the other employees. You always knew where you stood with Wayne. He became one of my tax clients after I left Lowe's, and became my friend. I only recently heard about his passing, so apologize for my late comments here. He was a good man, and I will miss talking with him, and joking with him.

Because he lived his life so proud so honest and so unselfishly. He will be missed by so many life's he truly touched. May he have the highest seat in heaven for how he shared on earth. Wayne was truly the greatest caring brother anyone could ask for. You could always count on him when you where down. He never looked down on anyone. And if he did it was a hand to help you get back up. What an amazing loving human being he was truly was. One of the last things he said to me is don't cry over me Chris. I want you to be happy no matter what happens to me. I think that says it all about how unselfishly he lived. God bless you forever my so much loved and cherish brother. “ Words can't express my emotion and heartbreak. I wish I visited every time you asked. Michael and I looked so forward to celebrating you and Arthur last weekend as it was so very long overdue. I haven't really found the right words. I pray for Arthur and your beloved pets, your siblings, your friends. I have so many fond memories. You were the absolute best story teller. You always had us in pain from laughing so hard. You're presence was like a beacon of bright light, your laughter infectious, your smile so bright. I still have the pendant from the Duke and Dutchess of Kent Gala you did many years ago. As much as it makes me laugh, and you years later of course, I am sorry for the time I peed on your nice new couch out of spite when I was 7. I got that sassy Leo streak from you and Uncle Danny! Thank you for the amazing room in Disney for my senior trip, even including the spies, lol. I've heard that A life well lived is the most exquisite work of art! You sure did live the best life and had some amazing experiences and stories. I will miss you dearly and I will always regret not visiting sooner. Hug Gram and Uncle David for me! Rest In Peace Uncle Wayne. I love you! 💕💕 Corine McErlain (Tussey)

“ I'd like to extend my deepest condolences to Wayne's family and friends.

Arthur - I hope you know how much people are thinking about you during this time, the two of you had so many happy years together.

I had the pleasure of working with Wayne at the Westin Galleria & Westin Oaks. He was a superstar, and everyone knew it. He was always on the go - running back and forth through the Galleria, trying to get space releases approved, meeting with socialites about their galas, etc.

*My fondest memory is when Wayne and I performed the intro to the Mr. and Ms. Westin contest one year. Taken from The Phantom of the Opera, Wayne tried and tried to get me to act like "Christine" to his "Phantom". I was the worst, and of course, Wayne stole the show!*

I think that when Wayne was at the gates of heaven, he opened his arms out wide and said "Here I Am!"

Rest In Peace, my Phantom

Love,

*Christine

“ This has been so sad for Tom and I to come to understand. Wayne was a one-in-a-million kind of person! Wayne was always supportive, passionate and generous toward neighbors, foster children and animals all over the city! Wayne worked so hard, all the time, but mostly he embodied generosity and care for those he loved.

As a result, Wayne, we will miss you forever! There will certainly never be another one like you. Tom and I are so blessed to have met you in 2000 and to have enjoyed your friendship for these past 21 years.
