“ Bill was simply one of the nicest gentleman I ever had the pleasure of meeting. He shared stories of his time in the CCC working at Bandelier National Monument in New Mexico before his service in the Navy. He was such a mild and gentle man and will be missed but never forgotten. We send our sincerest condolences to his family.

I had the privilege to work with Mr. Bill in the 90's, and he has always been my favorite boss, I have seen him several times since he retired, even ran him to him in Las Vegas several years ago and he always greet me as kid, will never forget him, best man ever! I just found out about Bill's passing the day after his funeral. Although I knew him before, I really got to know him the summers of 1967 and 68 when I had summer jobs at W A Parrish. He and Jim allowed me to ride to work with them both summers which saved me some money. We had many great discussions on those trips! I've always wondered if he had a hand in getting me that first summer job. I also think there are many others whom Bill put a good word in for when they applied for jobs out there. He was a great man. Rest in peace, Bill.
