“ With sadness, I am remembering my first cousin, WILLIAM EARL BROWN. To our large extended family he was “Earl” from the moment of his birth in Bastrop ,Louisiana until his passing here in Texas a few days ago. Our minds are filled with images of him as an adorable toddler, a handsome teenager who was the “apple of his mother’s eye,” and a serious young who became a committed police officer in the field of public education. As were his late parents and, now, his sister Penny, who survives him, Earl’s approximately 40 first cousins, are proud of the man that he became. May you Rest In Peace, dear cousin. Prayers are offered for Babsie, Penny and their families. With love,
Mary Dee (Mary Marks Guillory, Houston, Texas)

I would like to offer my condolences to my first cousin Earl Brown's Family during this time of sorrow. To Babsie. Penny and all family members we are keeping you in our prayers. At this time I'm thinking of Aunt Shirley Mae and how proud she was of the man Earl grew to be. Life's journey on earth for Earl is now ended but his memories will live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. I pray for comfort, strength and peace for the family that surpasseth all understanding with much Love to you All. Vivian Alford Lee (Daughter of Thomas Jr. & Carrie Lee Alford), Bastrop, LA
