I'm sorry for your loss. Bubba and Mike and I had so much fun as kids Even though we were cousins we were friends too. One time Bubba and Mike built a raft out of spare wood they found. They had a bucket for an anchor. They wanted me to go with them to make sure the raft would float. We got to a certain spot on the bayou and Mike was going to throw the anchor out and ended up hitting me in the eyebrow. I was bleeding like crazy and Bubba carried me to the house. Bubba, I still have the pictures you sent me from Nam. I'm sorry we lost touch over the years. Just know I loved you. You give big hugs to our families that went before you. You're in good company.
