“ My thoughts and heart felt prayers are with William's family and friends and all of those who loved him....specilally my daughter Michele. I only met William once, but he left a lasting impression with me. He seemed to be a happy and friendly young man. I Inow that Michele cared deeply for him and she always talked fondly about him. May God have a special place in Heaven for him. May his soul find ever lasting peace. May God bless his family and help them keep William's memory alive for ever and ever.
