“ RIP Bill. Condolences to Theresa and family. Bill was truly a joy to know and work with in Hamburg. We will all remember his end of day declaration to the office. "Its time to go home". And so he did, although a little early this time.

“ Theresa, Chris and Allison, it was just on Tuesday that my daughter, Andrea, told me about Bill's journey on earth coming to an end. May he now be enjoying what God has planned for those that love Him. I always remember how he always was proud of our sons playing baseball at Clements.

“ Dear Lane & Plaisance Family:
We did not meet very often, but when we did Mr. Lane was a kind of person who would keep the conversation alive. He was pleasant and easy to talk to. We were fortunate to see him when we all met, not too long ago. May God bless his soul and give you all comfort and courage in this time of need. Setu and Satyen also send their love and prayers to you all.

“ My fondest memories of Bill are on a boat. He seemed to be so happy and free on the water. I can see him now on a sailboat with that big Bill smile on his scruffy face. He loved the wind in his hair and the sand between his toes. I hope he’s sailing now with Boudreaux and Rodeo sitting by his side. Until we meet again, buddy...
