Judi, Mardi, and all the kids.... It was a beautiful service. Thank you for having it on here for those of us who couldn't make it there. My dad and I watched the whole service. Bubba will be missed.. I will never forget the "sassing" he always gave me for killing a little deer a long time ago... he helped make a lot of memorable times for me when I was a child. 🙌👍👍

Bubba was a man and a good friend. I've known him since the 70,s thru deaf bowling tournaments and work at Welex before it became Halliburton.

“ Bubba was a fine man. I met Bubba and Judy many years ago when I had childcare in my home. Bubba always had a smile and kind word. I would often totally forget that Bubba had hearing issues. He could read lips like a pro, nothing ever got pass him. We shared many hunting stories. I have so much love for the Lorenz family. Precious memories in Dickey’s Barber Shop over the years.

“ Bubba was always such a pleasant person. Seemed to have a smile all the time. He will be greatly missed by his family and friends, but is now in heaven with his other family.

My heart is shattered and a piece of it is missing. My brother loved to laugh and tease. We were inseparable from day one. He was a great brother and friend, there was no better. Although I am overwhelmed with sorrow, I will not say goodbye only so long, see you soon at Jesus feet.

On behalf of all the HBCD (Houston Bass Club of the Deaf) Members, we extend our heartfelt condolence to the Lorenz Families on the passage of an excellent Angler in Bubba! With his extraordinary skills in the Bass Angler areas, he sure was a valuable member of the HBCD organization where he shares his experience before/after tournaments fighting to get basses and to win the tournaments. That is Bubba and this tells who he is an excel outdoorsman. He surely will be missed but he will still be doing the bass fishing up there in heaven with the past HBCD members that he will enjoy seeing them again. He will always treasure his love to his families and friends as well the HBCD members. Go continue enjoy Bassing up there with the others. Until we meet again! God Bless!

Bubba will certainly be missed. There are many memories for those of us who know we will see him again. Bubba had a big heart. He loved his family deeply. He had such a gentle spirit. I am so sorry I will not be able to attend the service Saturday. You will be in my prayers. Lynn Hall
