“ Debbie what can i say . Knew Bubba for a long time he could be a bit of a character at times ran around together at times before you two were married seemed to have time to talk even when he still worked at the old Eddie's Garage in Needville after we got out of school. One of the smartest things that boy did was to marry you . Did sometimes give you this look made you wonder what was going on behind that forehead of his and if i remember he had a certain kind of laugh .Going miss him as i know you and his family will. Take comfort though he's in the hands of God with family and a number of his classmates mates from Needville High School Class of '70 and he's not suffering .Bubba guess God missed your laughter or the way you did things with family and friends so that's why HE called you home .Keep a space up there for the rest of your classmates and of course your family when our time comes .

“ Bubba was one of the best neighbors a person could ever have , we shared a fence for many years , like Wilson (the character in Tim Allens tool time) ,we both leaned on that fence for many years exchanging thoughts ,stories, and just talk ,.Invariably the subject always rolled around to Leslie and Eddie and Jason and his grandkids ,he was immensely proud of all of them . Bubba was a soft spoken gentleman that always looked for and brought out the best in you . My heart goes out to Debra and all Pringelton family .

“ Bubba was such a kind soul, with a sheepish little grin that always left you wondering what he was thinking. He was such a hard worker and provider for his family. Loving memories, thoughts and prayers for all the family. We have another angel in heaven.

*Much Love,
Heidi Hancock*
