“ Our family will miss you so much, Will. Uncle Henry and I knew you all of your life and you were always such a blessing - a fresh breeze blowing through our lives. Each one of the steps you took into life were encouragement enough for our faith in God to continue to grow, believing always that God would sustain you for as long as He would allow us to have you with us. I remember the precious things you did and said growing up, and the love you always injected into our lives. The most precious memories of you were of the times we spent with you at Toledo Bend: the table games we played, the rope swing over the ravine, catching your first fish, you driving your grandpa's boat, and always the quips you made that made us all at least smile, if not outright chuckle. Thanks for the memories.... We will love you always,

“ Brenda,

Thank you for sharing Will with me for those 19 years. I hope he knew how much I loved him and really did not like when I got him in trouble, I was only wanting to be so protective. Being with his friends really opened my eyes to be able to know both sides of precious Will.
