“ Dear Bob,
Just wanted to, maybe, help shoulder some fractional part of your grief in the loss of your beautiful companion, Wyn.

I've shared the story she told me in one of our insurance discussions,of the man who refused to believe he was "hard of hearing", to lighten the atmoshere in dozens of other similar interview discussions across the state.

May God bless you Bob, and give you strength and consolation in this time of deep sorrow for your family.

Melvin Hogan*

“ To my dear family in Sugar Land....

Words just cannot express the sadness I feel for you all in the loss of Aunt Wynnell, a caring, wonderful, compassionate, talented and classy woman who always made me feel special the minute I arrived in Sugar Land. I remember many summers travelling to Sugar Land as a child with Mimi Aunt Blanche to you all!, Aunt Nona's sister, to visit all of our "relatives" in Texas. It was always one of my favorite vacations. Spending time between the two Lakeview homes was incredible. Aunt Wynnell always made sure that we Mike, Allen, and I had a fabulous time. Mostly we enjoyed the fishing on the private lake there. I remember fishing with chopped hot dog weiners which today my husband, Chuck, still finds hard to believe! and pulling in the bream constantly! Aunt Wynnell loved life and she loved each one of you more than anything! She shared that love with all of us, and I am blessed to have had her in my life. I hope that one of these days I will get to see and visit with you all. I am sorry that I will not be attending the funeral. Please, know that you are all in my prayers and in my heart.

Love,

“ Memories of my very dear friend flood my thoughts. She is and always will be close to my heart. She was a "special" gift from God to all who knew her. My family joins me with love.

“ Wyn was a very special lady, she started me on my life in Real Estate, we had many interesting and funny moments. How very talented she was, she decorated a home like no one else, gave a party unlike any other and with such grace and style. But this whole family just takes you under their wing and makes you part of their many friends. I loved her dearly and always will. We were blessed to have her in our lives. God has a faithful Lady with him now.

“ Wyn was a wonderful person. I went to school with her son Mike but later she became my friend during a very difficult time in my life. Even though we lost touch I know that she continued to help others. It is because of her that I overcame that troubling time. I will keep your family in my prayers.
